Eiisenstein congruences and Euler systems
Eric Urban (Columbia University)

Abstract

I will explain the construction of new Euler systems using congruences between Eisenstein series and cusp forms of various levels and weight. The local global compatibility of the p-adic Langlands correspondence will be used to control the integrality of the Euler system.